

Breakfast fringe meeting

Iraq: Where next for Conservative policy?

Conservative Party Conference, Manchester 2009

Wednesday October 7th, 8am to 9.20am. Breakfast served from 7.30am

Midland Hotel, Victoria Suite

David Lidington MP, Shadow Minister for Foreign Affairs

Tobias Ellwood MP

Nadhim Zahawi, YouGov, CEO and Founder

Bayan Sami Abdul Rahman, Kurdistan Regional Government High Representative

Chaired by William Morris, Chairman International Council for Press and Broadcasting

"The Conservative Party considers the Middle East to be a region of great opportunity and promise, where we have many friends and potential allies" Rt Hon William Hague, July 09

"The Kurdistan Region is vital to the success of Iraq and to British foreign policy objectives"

Report by All Party Parliamentary Group on Iraqi Kurdistan, April 09

Kurdistan Regional Government UK Representation in cooperation with Next Century Foundation

